Robert Guthrie and family moved from Illinois by train in February 1908, with children Verta, Alice and Eugene, to live on a farm 5 miles NW of Medford, Oklahoma. Children born on the farm were Vernon, Alberta, Gertrude, Wayne, Lucille and Clifford. The following are recollections of life on the farm by Alberta:

"Wheat harvest was the big event on a large farm where wheat was the main crop. The wheat was cut, bound, and shocked using horse-drawn equipment. Mother's uncle John Meritt arrived with his threshing machine and a cook shack on a wagon, where our cousins Sue and Goldia Meritt did the cooking for the threshing crew.

We had several horses, a pony, hogs and a few sheep, plus turkeys and chickens. I recall learning to milk a cow and wash the cream separator at an early age. Cream was sold to a produce house in Medford.

In September, Dad would drive the spring wagon to an orchard near Belle Plaine, Kansas, to bring back a load of apples, so we always had an apple in our school lunches. In 1917, Dad with our school teacher, Earl Mott, traveled by train to Kansas City, Missouri, to buy our Ford car. Mr. Mott drove the car back home.

Uncle William T. Hannaford lived with our family and helped Dad on the farm for a year. He was a young man at the time and enjoyed playing baseball on Sunday afternoons with friends, who knew him as Bill Hannaford. (Uncle William visited us several times in later years as did Grandma and Grandpa and aunts Clara, Ollie and Mary. We missed knowing cousins in Illinois.)"

In 1921, the family moved into Medford where Dad operated his Transfer & Storage business until he retired in 1950. Children born in Medford were Maxine, Helen, Patricia and Bruce.

Dad was an Elder at the Congregational Church and a member of the choir. He was a member of the Odd Fellows, a humanitarian organization that was most active in the early part of the century. The family attended Thanksgiving and Christmas parties at the Lodge in the 1920's.

Dad loved people; he enjoyed talking to friends or to total strangers, but he was a good listener--especially if someone had a good front-porch story to tell. He wrote letters to the children, usually including conversations he had had with someone they knew. Every year, he wrote a long letter to the Wayne County Press in Fairfield, Illinois, for their "Wayne County Wanderers" edition.

A high point for Mother and Dad came in the late 1940's when they traveled by train to California to visit children there. Dad was so oversome on seeing the ocean for the first time that he walked into the surf with his shoes on (and he returned home with a jar of ocean water!). He enjoyed his first ride in an airplane while they were in California, when Helen's husband Hal took him up in a single engine plane.

Emma Bell was born 16 Jun 1881 in Burnt Prairie, White County, Illinois. She died 19 Oct 1966 in Caldwell, Sumner County, Kansas and is buried in the Rosemond Cemetery in Medford, Oklahoma.

Already an excellent seamstress before her marriage, Mother made her own wedding dress, and over the years made clothing for most of her thirteen children. She was known especially for her biscuits and yeast breads: when the Daughters of Plymouth at the Congregational Church served dinner for the Lions Club, she was always requested to bring the hot rolls. Every fall, Mother and Alice's future mother-in-law (Mrs. Bryson) prepared oyster soup from fresh oysters for the Grange Oyster Suppers near our home.

She always had a large garden, even after moving to town, and canned fruit, vegetables, and sausage. For a large family, she bought flour in 100 pound cloth bags, sugar in 50 pound sacks, and honey in 5 gallon cans. One of her many skills was soap-making, an activity that followed the hog-butcherer. She was up and dressed early; no one ever saw her in pajamas or a robe. Standing 5'1", she was soft spoken and never raised her voice.

Mother was always concerned about others, never turning away a hobo needing food. Alberta relates that she took her with her as a small child to stay overnight with a palsied widow who lived about a mile from our home on the farm. Mother always found the time to listen to anyone needing help.

Alberta relates the following:

I accompanied Mother on her first plane trip to Oak Ridge TN to visit Bruce and family, flying on a 4-engine plane to Nashville, where we transferred to a 2-engine plane for the remainder of the flight. Bruce, on our arrival, asked Mother how she enjoyed the aerial views of Tennessee: her reply was 'I couldn't see because Alberta was sitting by the window'. My thought had been to protect her from knowing that we were then on a 2-engine plane (never could fool Mother).

Bruce later questioned the return date on the ticket, which was when I had to return from vacation. Mother noted it was not necessary that she return on that date, and later returned on the plane alone. In later years she went by plane alone to visit family in California.

The hard work and sacrifices of Mother and Dad make the children "The Lucky Thirteen".

101. ALBERTA¹⁵ HANNAFORD, (ROBERT GUTHRIE¹⁴, JOHN¹³, ANN¹², DANIEL¹¹, JOAN¹⁰, EDWARD⁹, HUGH⁸, WILLIAM⁷, ROBERT⁶, JOHN⁵, ROBERT⁴, RICHARD³, ROBERT², RICHARD¹), born 3 Mar 1911 Medford, Grant County, Oklahoma.

Alberta writes: I was born on a farm NW of Medford, Oklahoma. I attended country school District #43 located one mile east of our home, through 3rd grade. In 1920 - the year of unusually high snow drifts - Eugene, Vernon, Gertrude and I were riding to school in a spring wagon when the two horses missed the bridge, turning them over into the snow and making us one hour late to school. When we began school in Medford in the fall of 1921, seven of my classmates were also in my Sunday school class at the Congregational Church.

In 1929 I graduated from Medford High School; in 1930 I moved to Oklahoma City where I went to work for Montgomery Ward. After a period of managing sales floor departments I was promoted in 1939 to the Invoice Records Office, which I managed for over 25 years.

After 45 years at Montgomery Ward, I retired and purchased a home in Caldwell, KS to be near family and friends, and to enjoy gardening and flower growing.

born.

In the story my sister Alberta tells about the wagon turning over in the snow, my brother Gene had to carry me the rest of the way to school because I couldn't stand up in the snow.

In 1921 we moved closer to Medford and we walked to school. In the 8th grade I was named salutatorian at graduation. I graduated from high school in 1931.

On New Years Day in 1934 I enetered nurses training at Morningside Hospital in Tulsa, OK. I married Robert Flood in 1936 and we later moved to California where I was on staff of Medical Arts Clinic. When the Second World War broke out I worked as a nurse at a defense plant. When the war was over I was on staff of Hollywood Hospital.

After a divorce in 1954 and a period of travel I returned home to Oklahoma, and much later married Alfred Ingram. He died of cancer in 1976. I still live in our home in Caldwell, KS. I have had no children."
